4. POLICY STATEMENT

Morling College aims to provide an environment which protects the safety, welfare and wellbeing of children and vulnerable adults on campus, and to ensure staff, students and volunteers encountering children while undertaking Morling-related activities, have appropriate child safety checks.

As all MC students and long term MRC residents are over 18, children on campus usually fall into the following categories:

- (ii) short-term residents of MRC
- (iii) children under the charge of MC staff, students or volunteers
- (iv) visitors from the local community
- (v) visitors involved in a non-MC activity or event.

Students and staff may encounter children off-campus when acting as a representative of MC. For example, staff in the Faculty of Education may enter a school.

All staff, students or volunteers are required to be responsible for the supervision, wellbeing and safety of any children on campus in their care.
