1. PURPOSE

To describe the behaviour expected of students who are studying at Morling College.

2. DEFINITIONS

Key Term or Acronym	Definition
MC	Morling College
ACT	Australian College of Theology

3. SCOPE

This policy applies to all students enrolled at Morling College, both on campus and online.

4. POLICY STATEMENT

The Bible affirms that there are certain expectations for conduct. This policy is framed within the principles of the Second Great Commandment: You shall love your neighbour as yourself (Matt 22:38), and the Golden Rule: So whatever you wish that others would do to you do also to them, for this is the law and the prophets (Matt 7:12). This policy complements the Morling College Community Code.

5. PRINCIPLES

5.1 Expectation of Students

As a student studying at MC you are expected to:

- 5.1.1 pursue your studies with integrity and diligence
- 5.1.2 treat everyone with respect, dignity, honesty, impartiality, and courtesy
- 5.1.3 treat everyone equitably, irrespective of gender, race, disability, medical condition, cultural background, age
- 5.1.4 actively participate in learning activities
- 5.1.5 participate in personal and spiritual formation activities
- 5.1.6 respect the views and opinions of others, and maintain each individual's confidentiality and privacy
- 5.1.7 be familiar with, and abide by, MC's policies and procedures
- 5.1.8 notify the Dean of Students, or Lecturer as soon as possible if difficulties arise
- 5.1.9 that cause substantial disruption to study, e.g. absences, inability to complete an assessment
- 5.1.10 use email, social media, student portal and internet appropriately and in accordance with this policy
- 5.1.11 pay all fees and charges on time

Students enrolled in on-campus units

- 5.1.2 attend all lectures, seminars, workshops and other contact sessions, including chapel
- 5.1.2 arrive to class at the times shown on the timetable
- 5.1.2 follow procedures for classroom behaviour as determined by your lecturer
- 5.1.2 refrain from eating or drinking in the classrooms

5.2 Inappropriate Behaviour

Inappropriate behaviour will not be tolerated. Inappropriate behaviour includes, but is not limited to:

- 5.2.1 any form of Academic Misconduct for example, copying, cheating, plagiarism or collusion.
- 5.2.1 violence of any kind
- 5.2.1 damage or abuse of MC property
- 5.2.1 using offensive language or images
- 5.2.1 stalking, bullying or any form of behaviour that might reasonably be perceived as harassment or otherwise intimidating

- 5.2.1 any form of electronic communication which contravenes this policy
- 5.2.1 smoking, use of alcohol or illegal drugs on MC site/s or at MC activities
- 5.3 Disciplinary Committee
 - 5.3.1 Any student found to be in significant breach of the MC Community Code may be asked to attend a meeting with the MC Disciplinary Committee. This committee will be comprised of the Principal, the Dean of Students and one other person from MC deemed to be impartial to the circumstances in question.
 - 5.3.2 A student who is asked to attend a meeting with the MC Disciplinary Committee may be accompanied by one other person who is not a practising solicitor or barrister.
 - 5.3.3 A student who is not satisfied with an outcome of the committee is entitled to access the provisions of the Grievance (Non-Academic) Policy: Education; Counselling, Chaplaincy and Spiritual Care or the MC Grievance (Academic) Policy. Bible and Theology students will have recourse through the relevant ACT policies.
